

Winter Reading List

We are a winter nation. Kids know instinctively that winter can be a whole lot of fun. A way to get warm, while still in the comfort of your cozy house, is to indulge in some fun snow-themed books. Here are some suggestions for winter reading that will help you and your young ones get really excited about the snowy season with a flurry of books!

For infant to kindergarten-aged children:

- Snow by Uri Schulevitz
- Owl Moon by Jane Yolen
- Building an Igloo by Ulli Steltzer
- The Snowy Day by Ezra Jack Keats
- A Penguin Story by Antoinette Portis

For the grade one and two children:

- Winter Eyes: Poems and Paintings by Douglas Florian
- Snow Music by Lynne Rae Perkins
- Snowflake Bentley by Jacqueline Martin
- The Polar Express by Chris Van Allsburg
- The Snow Show by Carolyn Fisher

Find more tips, resources and products check out www.calgaryreads.com

The logo for Calgary Reads features the word "calgary" in a light blue, lowercase sans-serif font. To its right, the word "reads" is written in a larger, lowercase sans-serif font where each letter is filled with a different color: 'r' is blue, 'e' is orange, 'a' is green, 'd' is pink, and 's' is orange.