

read
sing
talk
play

read aloud with your child every day.

sing for fun and joy.

talk to help your child learn new words.

play That's it, just play with them, at their level.

love your child.

why? Creating the time and space for being with your child is the best way to build their brains and make them feel loved.

calgary reads

For links to parenting videos and free resources visit:
calgaryreads.com