

Opportunity: Community Book Drop

Community Book Drops is a way to get free books out into communities where there are families furthest from opportunity.

Why?

- To share the joy of reading with Calgary families
- To promote the importance of reading
- Increase book access for families furthest from opportunity

Who?

- Individuals
- Corporate members looking for a great team building opportunity

What?

- Pack and pick up ziploc bags filled with books and extras at our office (sign up for time to do this during office hours).
- Flexible volunteer opportunity for book drop in the community. We will choose a community when you pick up the bags.

How?

- Able to complete the book drop within a reasonable amount of time.
- Drop books in public spaces where finding a book would be unexpected; places where parents and children might go; bus benches; train stations.

Training:

Provided when you pack the book drop bags.
