

Opportunity: Little Free Library Fill Ups

Little Free Libraries (LFL) are popping up in communities across the city to share the joy of reading with neighbours. This role engages volunteers to replenish local Little Free Libraries with books from our Book Bank

Why?

- To share the joy of reading with all community members
- To promote the importance of reading

Who?

- Individuals

What?

- Replenish Little Free Libraries across the city with free books

How?

- Pick up books from our Little Red Reading House and distribute to libraries in your own area or other areas in the city.
- Flexible volunteer opportunity

Training:

Map provided with locations of Calgary Little Free Libraries